Alaska law requires that I inform you that your treatment program may be discussed with other professions and, if that occurs, your confidentiality will be maintained; and your name and identity will be disclosed only in compliance with AS 08.29.200. Any discussion of your treatment will be dependent upon any requirements of your insurer or employee assistance program. I will make every effort only to disclose to them what is essential for their requirements. If you have any concerns about such a possible disclosure, please discuss it with me. There may be alternative options for you.

This disclosure is required by the Board of Professional Counselors, which regulates all licensed professional counselors. Should you wish to contact them, their address is: Board of Professional Counselors, Division of Occupational Licensing, P.O. Box 110806, Juneau, AK 99811-0806.

Sec. 08.29.200 Confidentiality of communications.

(a) A person licensed under this chapter may not reveal to another person a communication made to the licensee by a client about a matter concerning which the client has employed the licensee in a professional capacity. This section does not apply to

(1) a communication to a potential victim, the family of a potential victim, law enforcement authorities, or other appropriate authorities concerning a clear and immediate probability of physical harm to the client, other individuals, or society;

(2) a case conference or case consultation with other mental health professionals at which the patient is not identified;

(3) the release of information that the client in writing authorized the licensee to reveal;

(4) information released to the board during the investigation of a complaint or as part of a disciplinary or other proceeding; or

(5) situations where the rules of evidence applicable to the psychotherapist-patient privilege allow the release of the information.

(b) Notwithstanding (a) of this section, a person licensed under this chapter shall report incidents of

(1) child abuse as required by AS 47.17;

(2) harm or assaults suffered by an elderly person or disabled adult as required by AS 47.24.
